Living in Stockport

Stockport

Stockport is a large town in Greater Manchester, England, 7 miles (11 km) south-east of Manchester city centre

It comes as no surprise that Stockport has been rated as the second happiest place in Britain to live in a 2015 Poll.

Researchers quizzed 40,000 people on 12 different factors such as neighbourliness, safety, amenities, cost, and the amount of space they have in their home and Stockport came 2nd from the top.

Stockport has a thriving business community, excellent transport links, offers high quality education, has an historic market and can boast some of the best tourist attractions in the region, including Bramall Hall and the air raid shelters. All of this will have greatly contributed to making Stockport such a happy place to live

Stockport has cheap rent prices as well as proximity to Manchester Airport and the M60. Sometimes it can be good to have a change of scenery and while there are plenty of great things to see and do in Stockport, being able to get out quickly too is always of benefit. Being located so close to Manchester is a plus point for life in Stockport but Manchester Airport is close by and you can also get on the road to London and the South of England with a minimum of fuss and effort.

With the excellent location of Stockport, close to Manchester and only 2 hours by train to

London here are some of the selling points of Stockport City

- The city is only 2 hours by train from London
- The city has a direct link to Manchester Airport
- Has some of the cheapest rent prices in England, North West.
- Excellent Schools & level of Education
- Brilliant sporting Amenities, parks & Greenspace
- Fantastic Landmarks & Museums

Stockport: One of the happiest place to live in Britain

Stockport has been voted the happiest place to live in the North West, after nearly 50,000 people across Great Britain were asked to rank how happy they feel in their homes and communities.

Nationally, the town comes fourth overall out of 111 places, with the Index painting a picture of it as a place with friendly neighbours and plenty to get involved with in the community

Stockport was ranked a fantastic place to live for many reasons – the excellent education your family can get here, the brilliant sporting amenities, the great transport links and the parks.

The cost of living is also low and affordable as a nurse if you're considering living in the city.

Finding Accommodation

There's a wide range of housing available in the Stockport townships of Woodford, Bramhall and Hazel Grovel, Heaton Moor and Heaton Mersey. If you're looking for rented accommodation the range available is equally extensive. There are furnished city center flats, bedsits and rooms and because Stockport is a growing city there are many new housing developments in the area. The rental prices are also low relative to neighboring UK cities.

Things to do in Stockport

Stockport lies in south Manchester and provides a diverse range of attractive places to live and play, with extensive outdoor possibilities within the adjacent Peak District and Cheshire and easy access to the city center with access to shopping outlets, and wide-ranging cultural and sporting opportunities. Manchester has a number of highly regarded schools both within the independent and state sectors. There's a wealth of cultural and heritage attractions in the borough as well as sporting achievements.

Who Stockport NHS Trust are looking for

Stockport NHS Trust are looking for people who understand what their value are. People who are proud of the NHS and are looking to make a real difference to people's lives. The team at Stockport believe that a strong team is a team that recognizes the value that different sets of experiences and perspectives bring to it. That is why they are proud their workforce includes young people, older people, people from different ethnic backgrounds and of different sexual orientation and belief. The more they understand people from different groups, the better they can serve their patients who represent every area of society. How the Stockport team works The Stockport team are all driven by the same values:

- Quality & Safety: They deliver safe, high quality and compassionate care. Clean and safe environment for better care.
- Communication: They treat their patients, their families and their staff with dignity and respect.
- Deliver improved care, in the right place, at the right time.
- As a member of Stockport NHS team you would be expected to demonstrate these values every day. It is what your patients and colleagues should be able to expect from you at all times.

Lifetime benefits

Apart from being able to finish work every day knowing that you have made a real difference to people's lives, there are a number of other benefits to working for Stockport NHS Trust. The NHS pension scheme remains one of the premier schemes in the UK offering terms and security that few others could match. In addition a significant number of organizations offer discounts to NHS staff and they have a strong trade union presence that they encourage you to join.

Training and Development

Stockport are committed to training and development on an on-going basis. You will have an annual performance appraisal with your manager once a year and work with them to develop a personal development plan. This plan will include the training you will undertake at the purpose built Pinewood House education and training center on the flagship Stepping Hill site, in a community location or with an external provider. If you do choose to move on to work elsewhere in the future Stockport NHS Trust want you to do that with better skills and qualifications than when you joined them.

Testimonials

From our Nurses in UK Trusts

Finally have a read of what some of our past successful candidates currently working in the UK have to say about their experiences working in a UK Trust, settling into their new lives in England, and the recruitment process.

Name: Chiara, Astarita

Occupation: General Medical Nurse at a London NHS Hospital

"Even though I didn't even know of the existence of PCR till May, in a few weeks I'm going to move to London to work as a nurse in a NHS hospital.

During the first meeting in May the staff explained that the chance to work abroad is closer than it seems.

The "Open Day" in June was for a first selection, as a basic knowledge of English is a good point to start.

In the following weeks the English course gave me and my mates the possibility to really "speak English".

That was very useful and helped to gain self-confidence.

The staff members I met (Alessandra, Mirjana and Jennie) put us at ease and helped to prepare for the interview.

They gave us material, suggested what position apply for (according to work and training background) and what to highlight, so that when the interview was over I felt it was easier than I expected."

Name: Filippo Belmonte

Occupation: General Medical Nurse at a London NHS Hospital

"Honestly, I was skeptical about the idea of being selected by an English hospital, starting with a basic language level, but thanks to PCR and Porta Futuro, I will work in future as a scrub nurse in London. For no costs, PCR provided teachers, nurses and all their staff to prepare us to overcome the interview. PCR organized a 6 weeks free English course and continuous Skype sessions until the date of the interview. After the interviews, they supported us, giving us all the information needed. I feel lucky for choosing PCR, because without their help, I do not know if I would have been able to overcome all the difficulties"
